

More Useful Links

If you are looking to get into the ICT field, have had a break and want to get back into the workforce or just want to learn more about your options, there are many resources available.

<https://www.acs.org.au/ictcareers/>

The Australian Computer Society careers section is for people who have an interest in careers in computing and Information Technology.

Whether you are already working and want to transition to a career in ICT or considering your first career, this site is for you.

www.itskillshub.com.au

A single, united organisation taking responsibility for ICT skill development across the entire education and training spectrum, from secondary schools and TAFE, to higher education and industry certification.

www.education.gov.au

The Federal Government's education website. Career and training information, newsletters and up-to-date contacts.

www.gocareer.gov.au

Enterprise and career education from the Federal government.

www.myfuture.edu.au

Brings together comprehensive information on the labour market, education, training and jobs in Australia.

www.womens.nsw.gov.au

A one-stop entry point to government and community services for women in New South Wales.